

Report on Article Writing Competition

The Article Writing Competition conducted by the Library Reader's Club for the IX-XII block in English and Malayalam was a huge success. It was a compulsory event for all the students who participated with great enthusiasm. A great display of linguistic brilliance. All the participants showed great passion and commitment to their work and put everything in with great competitiveness. The event was conducted in the last week of April in the library during the respective library periods of each class.

Following were the topics for Classes IX-XII:

IX- In what way does social media impact modern youth?

X- Do exams really evaluate a student?

XI- Is parental pressure on students good when it comes to their career decisions?

XII- Is education too commercialized nowadays?

After going through more than a thousand articles, the best ones (class-wise) chosen were:

IX- 1. Ayaz Ahmed	IXB3 (1 ST POSITION)
2. Mohammed	IXB3 (2 nd POSITION)
